

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY MEALS ON WHEELS SOUTH AFRICA

19 April 2011

Precious Children Crèche Needs Stoves and Pots

The Precious Children Crèche branch of Meals on Wheels in Galeshewe, Kimberley, Northern Cape struggles with a shortage of pots, gas stoves and other kitchen requisites.

“We need gas stoves, pots, and plastic plates and cups,” says branch manager, Ps Hendrik Nyakaza. “At the moment we hire these items at a very high price. We also buy disposable cups which is wasteful and expensive.”

The crèche currently feeds some 80 children and 50 old people.

Please bring your pots, plates and stoves to 36 Adamant Street, West End, Galeshewe. “Other than a shortage of these items, we are doing fine,” says Ps Nyakaza cheerfully.
